About Global Biotech Corp.

Global Biotech Corp. is dedicated to investigating and developing natural products to curb the negative impact on our environment. Global is positioning its AquaBoost(TM) product as a top quality oxygenated water due to its unique oxygenation level (up to 100 ppm and greater), ability to retain this level of oxygenation over lengthy periods of time and the purity of the product. The Company is also in the process of exploring other naturally oxygenated beverages and is involved in the development of several pharmaceutical and cosmeceutical products.

Global Biotech Corp. Set to Launch AquaBoost(TM) Product Line in the Marketplace

WILMINGTON, Del., Jul 28, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX) Global Biotech Corp. is a publicly traded company with interests in the nutraceutical, cosmeceutical, pharmaceutical and phytochemical areas. Global owns the trademarked product Aquabooost, an oxygenated spring water.

As of July 2010, the company finished the installation of their unique oxygenation unit at a Quebec based spring water source and bottler. The company has now entered the sales phase and is confident that the market will find AquaBoost(TM) as an exciting alternative to other beverages currently on the market.
