About VitaminSpice

VitaminSpice, makes it easy to naturally boost the flavor and nutritional value of your family's meals. The delicious seasonings and condiments are blended with premium herbs and spices and packed with essential vitamins, minerals and anti-oxidants.

The inspired creation of Ed Bukstel, a father with a lifelong commitment to health and nutrition, VitaminSpice was born from an "Ah Hah" moment in the kitchen while Ed was cooking with his daughters.

The first of its kind, VitaminSpice's new line of proprietary spice and vitamin blends offers a convenient and effective way to nourish the body, and is perfect for anyone who wants to augment their nutritional intake throughout the day. Our spices don't taste or smell like vitamins – just sprinkle them on your favorite food or beverage, and you'll be treating both your body and your palate.

All of VitaminSpice's products are:

- kosher with all-natural spices
- free of dairy and nuts
- 100% vegetarian
- free of additives, preservatives and coloring
- calorie-free
- free of sugar and artificial sweeteners
- gluten-free
