WPFH Sells Partial Rights to Peer-To-Peer Gaming Asset for $2.5 Million

World Poker Fund Holdings, Inc. (OTC PINK: WPFH), a leading developer and operator of on-line technology, gaming platforms and brands, announces that it has signed an agreement to sell a portion of its Peer-to-Peer Betting technology for $2.5 million.

WPFH is selling the foreign rights to its recently acquired Peer-to-Peer betting technology and will be retaining the US rights and will continue with its plans to integrate the Peer-to-Peer Betting technology with its other recently acquired app Picking Duck.

"The partial sale of this asset will result in WPFH booking over $2 million in profits for the third quarter. This transaction is a win-win situation as WPFH will have additional funds from the sale, while retaining the US licensing rights of the technology," says Travis Kasper, CEO of WPFH.

WPFH Signs Global Licensing Deal for Peer-to-Peer Betting App and $2.5 Million Private Placement Deal

World Poker Fund Holdings, Inc. announced that it has secured a global licensing agreement for its Peer-to-Peer Betting technology with PW Holdings (PW). The Licensing deal is initiated by a Private Placement deal where PW also will purchase 1 million common shares in WPFH for $2,500,000.

WPFH recently acquired the Peer-to-Peer betting technology with big plans for its use. WPFH will license the technology in its current format to PW, which is already planning to roll out the app in Asia and Europe initially. WPFH will work on integrating this Peer-to-Peer betting technology into its existing platform, Picking Duck™. The Peer-to-Peer betting technology will allow friends to challenge and bet directly with their friends on sporting events.
